The aim of Religion, Brain & Behavior (RBB) is to provide a vehicle for the advancement of current biological approaches to understanding religion at every level from brain to behavior. RBB unites multiple disciplinary perspectives that share these interests. The journal seeks empirical and theoretical studies that reflect rigorous scientific standards and a sophisticated appreciation of the academic study of religion.

RBB welcomes contributions from a wide array of biological and related disciplines, including:

- cognitive science
- evolutionary psychology
- evolutionary anthropology
- social neuroscience
- demography
- neuroeconomics
- developmental psychology
- moral psychology
- mimetics
- epidemiology
- cultural evolution
- cognitive neuroscience
- social psychology
- genetics
- neurology
- bioeconomics
- physiology
- psychology of religion
- archaeology
- behavioral ecology
- public health
- religious studies

In summary, RBB considers high quality papers in any aspect of the brain-behavior nexus related to religion.

Author Instructions

Papers for consideration should be sent to the Editors at: rbbsubmit@ibcsr.org

Instructions for manuscript preparation:

- Authors should format articles using APA Style, being sure to submit a version suitable for blind refereeing.
- Target articles and review articles are maximum 10,000 words in length, including notes and references. Invited commentaries on target articles are at most 1,000 words in length, and author responses are 2,500 words. Research articles and case studies are no longer than 6,000 words in length, including notes and references.
- Use no more than two layers of headings. Use endnotes rather than footnotes.
- Include an abstract of no more than 200 words, furnishing a summary of background, methods, results, and conclusions, in that order, where applicable.
- Include 4-8 key words or phrases that will help would-be readers find your article using web searches.
- Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
